The commercial students of the B. Y.

AMERICAN FORK.

les, arrived home Thursday. They repany.

Francis C. Tyng of the Wyoming mine in American Fork canyon, spent the most of the week in Salt Lake City.
The Commercial club conferred an honor on the pioneers of 1847 now left in Amer-of the hip.

Most of the miners from the Wyoming

Most of the miners from the Wyoming mine in the canyon came down Tuesday. A delightful entertainment was given at the Second ward meeting house tonight, under the auspices of the Young Ladles' Mutual Improvement association and the Second ward Sunday school. The American Fork Silver band went to Alpine Washington's birthday to furnish music for the old folks' celebration.

nish music for the old place. Frank Groesbeck, traveling passenger agent for the Rio Grande railway, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday. UTAH LITHOGRAPHING CO.

HAVE MOVED TO

45 and 47 Richards street (Cunnington

Bonds, stock certificates and diplomas. Manufacturers of fine commer-cial stationery. Bank outfitting a spe-The only lithographing house between building.)

Lake Sunday.

Friends in this city have received during the past week the most unique and at the same time the daintiest of wedding souvenirs along with the announcement of the marriage of Miss at the Sappington home on Twelfth Louise Jones of Denver, to Albert Earl East street. Stevens of Kansas City. The bride is the niece of Mrs. C. S. Williamson, and Stevens of Kansas City. The bride is the niece of Mrs. C. S. Williamson, and she made many friends here when she was a guest at her aunit's home in the was a guest at her aunit's home in the have spent the past wears. The marriage took place past years. The marriage took place at the home of Mrs. Williamson in Denver. The souvenirs are tiny boxes of wedding cake with a small miniature of the bride on the lid. Since she was one of the belles of Denver and the Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gibson will queen of a beauty carnival a year or give a dinner Monday evening for Miss so ago, the box is of intrinsic value.

The older residents of the town were glad to welcome during the past week Mrs. J. B. Glass and her son and who were well known here in the eighties. They are now residents sued invitations for a dance and card of Los Angeles, but have spent the past party to be given in their hall tomorweek in the city and were welcomed and entertained informally at numer ous small affairs. Among those who greeted them with hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. T. C. Bailey, P. H. Lannan, Mrs. S. C. Park, Mrs. James L. Franken, Mrs. T. G. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Arthur L. Thomas and Mrs. C. C. Poblinger L. Thomas and Mrs. G. C. Robinson.

The Country club will doubtless be in its new quarters within a few days and the old Gilmer place, which has been its home from its birth, will be empty. The new building is almost in shape for moving, but it will be many days before the links are ready for the festive golfer. There is a possibility, of course, that the enthusiasts may secure the use of the old links for the spring season but this will not be despring the season that the same and supper. Among those present were Edith Raleigh, Carrie Larson, Joseph ine Free. Nettie Thompson, Arta Bell, Leona Evans, Katie Neve, Vera Evans, Rulon Free, Morris Bell, Frank Reilly. Carriece Reilly, Emerson Bell, Edward Smith, Clifford Evans, Clarence Evans, Thurston Evans and "Teddy" Evans. DOHL BARET.

CURRENT EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY CIRCLES

Py far the most elaborate dance of the winter was given in the Ladies Literary club house last evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kiser and Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Schulder entertained about 200 of their friends there. The hall was hung with the patriotic col-ors, and many flags of great beauty mense flag, which nearly covered the south wall, was draped across it, and smaller flags vere used over all the vindows and across the outer doors Behind a bank of palms an orchestra was stationed which during the early evening furnished a programme of conall the popular dance music of the day. Cosy corners were arranged both in the dance hall and in the reception room without, and on the lower floor card tables were arranged for the bridge players. In the supper room the table was a blaze of the national colors, a tall silver epergne filling 'the center, which was massed with red and white carnations with the blue ribbons extending therefrom. Stacks of small silken flags were at either side and smaller clusters of the flowers at the Punch was served in the reception hall on the dancing floor and here, too, the tri-color light gave the national effect. The friends who assisted in receiving were Mrs. David Ramsey Gray and Miss Polly Wakeearly evening a co stant stream of guests were arriving and the dancing was kept up till the early morning hours.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ramsey Gray entending the Kiser-Schulder dance later with their guests. The table decorations consisted of a large basket of gorgeous yellow daffodils as a centerpiece and streamers of ribbon in shades of yellow and red to the corners of the table. Smaller baskets of flowers were at each place. The guests were M1. and Mrs. Louis Cecil Robertson, Miss Ruthrauff, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Coray, J. A. Greenewald and J. T. Goodwin.

Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland entertained informally at a tea yesterday afternoon, about fifty of her friends being present. The house was bright with pink flowers, and in the dining room pink candles and tulle added to the color offeet. color effect. Mrs. Robert Glendinning poured and Miss Addie Zane, Miss Allie Miller and Miss Marge Miller as-

Mrs. Thomas Gould Griffin entertained yesterday afternoon at bridge tea, at which about a score of her friends were present. The decorations were all on the patriotic order and small colonial hats were used as tallies. Mrs. Griffin was assisted at the tea which followed the games by a number of her friends, Mrs. O. E. Cary pour-

Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith enter-tained a party of eight friends at a dinner last evening at their apartments in the Emery-Holmes, and later took their guests to the Kiser-Schulder says:

Chicago, Feb. 24.—A dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from New Orleans, La., dance. The decorations The decorations were red and yellow tulips.

Judge and Mrs. J. J. Whitaker have returned from their wedding trip, and to are now at home to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bagby, who arrived in the city yesterday, are guests for today of Mr. and Mrs. Mateer. They will spend tomorrow with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McCanne and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant leave today for a ten days' trip to Denver and Omaha.

Blanche Waterman of Omaha.

Marie Dermitt.

Mrs. J. C. Hooper expects to leave during the week for California.

The Knights of Columbus have is After songs, recitations and the little ones sat down to a Among those present were Raleigh, Carrie Larson, Joseph rec. Nettle Thompson, Arta Bell, Evans, Katie Smith, Bessie ers, Katie Neve, Vera Evans, Ruffere. Morris Bell, Frank Reilly, rence Reilly, Emerson Bell, Edward aith, Clifford Evans, Clarence Evis, Thurston Evans and "Teddy" vans.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Brown entertained a few of their friends Tuesday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Staley entertained and a member of their friends Tuesday evening, which was enjoyed by them ing. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomward. We have the propular socials Monday evening in Mrs. A sumptuous wedding supper was easy evening, which was enjoyed by them very much.

PROVO.

The Knights of Pythias gave another of their popular socials Monday evening in bonor. Mrs. Satie Jenkins of Goshen and A. E. Davis of this city were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomward and her steep the lodge rooms, the occasion being the lodge rooms, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. As a sumptuous weeding supper was served.

Mrs. Robert Boardme.

Mrs.

at music and cards. Selections were given on the piano by the Misses Heringer and Sindar, after which a luncheon was served. The prizes were won by Mrs. Kelley and Miss Elnore Heringer, Mr. Hill and Mr. Pitts.

A Washington's birthday character ball was given by the Nineteenth ward Dramatic club. Many characters were represented. A Chinaman and a Mexican, parts taken by John Reynolds and Richard Newton, received the first and second men's prizes. The old woman in the shoe and Martha Washington, represented by Miss Nellie Haworth and Miss Grace Sutherland, received first and second ladies' prizes. Other first and second ladies' prizes. Other characters represented were: The Children of the Shoe, Twin Babies, Chinese Lady of Fashion, Romeo, baseball players, Red Riding Hood. Auraro, Night, Cowboy, Buttercup, Cowgirl, Goddess of Liberty, Irishman and many others. The hall was decorated with the national colors.

Miss Venus Romney left Monday for a trip to southern California. While absent she will visit all the principal points of interest in that portion of the of interest in that portion of the state, and will go on to San Francisco before returning. She expects to be gone about a month or six weeks.

A George Washington party was given in honor of M'ss Tessie Kay, Feb. 22. The supper was served at 10 o'clock, after which games were played. The invited guests were Bessie Dowell, Ada Paschao, Alma Ray, Willie Dowell, Sidney Cowan, Verned Holm, Lillie Dow-Blanch Hunt, Charles Hummel, Leon Lesse, Ralph Dowell, Jack Hum-mel, Jessie Parks, Ida Cowan, Jessie Cowan, Tessie Kay, Louis Cowan, Rae Brimley, the hosts being Nellie Cowan, Bessie Brimley, Ruby Cowan and Ida

Mrs. F. J. Vincent and daughter, Ethel, and Miss Laura Farrell left for California Tuesday, where they will spend the next two months in Los Angeles and southern California.

Miss Maud Ward will entertain the Les Bons Amis club Thursday evening at ner home, 546 East Fifth South

WILL VISIT MARDI GRAS.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Guests of Honor at New Orleans.

says:
Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth will be the guests of the city of New Orleans during the carnival season, according to the information received yesterday by the Morgan Steamship company of Louis-

Miss Edith Shearman and her sister, Mrs. J. R. Folsom, who is her guest, entertained yesterday at a luncheon for some sixteen of their friends, followed by bridge.

Miss Glen Douglas of Ogden is in the city visiting friends.

Miss Florence Grant, who has been visiting Mrs. Jean Hampton in Park City, is expected home today.

Morgan Steamship company of iana.

The officers of the steamship company say that all arrangements have been made at the company's Havana office to book passage for Mr. and Mrs. Longworth on the Morgan liner Prince Arthur, which sails from there tonight and which will reach New Orleans Monday. If the ship be on time the entrance of Rex into the city will be delayed for a short time in order that the ship carrying the president's daughter and her husband may join in the procession up the river.

river.

Mrs. Longworth will arrive here in time to attend the ball of the Knights of Pythias on Monday night, and will be one of the guests of honor. If present plans be carried out she will witness the grand-parade of Rex from one of the galleries of the clubs here. On Tuesday night she will be the guest of Comus society and of the Rex ball.

CHURCHGOERS' THEATRE. Sarah Truax Advocates a Division of

Mrs. J. M. Dart goes to Park City during the week to spend some time with Mrs. F. W. Hayt.

Dr. L. E. Arnold will give a theatre party Tuesday evening for Blanche Waterman of Omaha.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—In an address before the Actors' Church Alliance at its annual meeting yesterday Miss Sarah Truax, the leading woman in a theatrical company appearing in Chicago, advocated the curtailment of Sunday religious services in the churches to morning services only. As a substitute for evening services she proposed that churchgoers attend a theatrical performance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper Dunbar and her two daughters and Miss Allie Miller will leave the early part of the week for southern California to spend the next six months or so.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McCanne will entertain at a dinner tomorrow for Rev.

Week's Social Happenings in Cowns of State

yery successful one.

Arthur Haigh went down to Zion Wednesday afternoon to visit with relatives and friends Sunday.

Henry Shields returned home from the city this week.

Several friends of Miss Bessie Thomas surprised her at her home Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music.

Miss Tessie Lambert is visiting in this city with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Weeter. Claude Armstrong left Tuesday morning for a brief visit in Ogden and Salt Lake.

The Pricallia club was entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. D. Edmonds at a candy-pull. Misses Lillie Smith. Ethel Snow and Daisy Nelson of Salt Lake were guests of the club. A pleasant social evening was spent and lunch served.

The Bonnie Brier Bush club entertained a large number of its friends at a dancing party in the First Ward Social hall Wednesday evening. The hall was tastefully decorated with the club colors. Punch and cake were served from the prettily arranged booths.

The Woman's Republican club enter-Lake.

The matinee and grand ball given Thursday afternoon and night by Professor Younger in the Maple hall were well attended and both were successes their popular socials Monday evening in their lodge rooms, the occasion being the forty-third anniversary of the order. Progressive sixty-three was the game played, and prizes were won by Dr. Hindselman and Mrs. Hattie Slater. Among the guests were Past Grand Chancellors White and Douglass and Grand Chancellor Beattie of Salt Lake, and G. K. R. and S. Walton of Ogden. Delicious refreshments were served.

A very enjoyable family reunion was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brinton Saturday evening. A most enjoyable evening was passed in short speeches, music and recitations. An elaborate spreads are considered. orate supper was served.

Misses Hazel Taylor and Birdie Cluff visited friends in Ogden this week.

Miss Maud VanWagner is visiting with friends in Heber a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poulton visited relatives and friends in Salt Lake on Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. mapn Founds visited re-latives and friends in Salt Lake on Wash-ington's birthday.

Miss Mattie Richie was the recipient of a pleasant surprise at her home Friday evening. Miss Richie has resigned her position in the Primary association, where she has been an active worker for a num-

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haws spent Washington's birthday with Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Smith in Lehi.
The forty-eighth birthday of W. S. Gib-

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Christensen have gone to Los Angeles and vicinity for a month's visit among the flowers and orange groves.

The forty-eight blittlady of No. 3 and the shome Thursday evening by about twenty of his friends. Games, songs and the expression of the evening. A sumptuous supper was Miss Bertha Watkins and LeRoy Nelso Miss Bertha Watkins and LeRoy Nelson were joined in wedlock Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Watkins, and witnessed by the immediate and a few intimate friends. W. H. Dusenberry officiated. The bride looked charming in a dainty gown of pale blue organdie. A sumptuous wedding supperwas served.

was served.

William M. Roylance and George E.

Howe have returner from their trip

Howe have returner from their trip through Mexico.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight have returned home after a couple of months spent in visiting places of interest in Mexico. They report a very pleasant trip, but are pleased to be at home again.
Mrs. Sam Schwab was the delightful hostess at a dinner at her beat liful new home on North Academy avenue Thursday. Carnations were used in profusion.
Harold Smoot, son of Senator and Mrs.
Smoot, who is attending school in Salt Lake, is visiting with his mother for a few days this week.
Mrs. H. S. Pyne entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon the officers of the Primary association. A social afternoon and a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by all.

Miss Vio Sorenson is visiting her mother

Miss vio Sorenson is visiting her mother and friends in Gunnison this week.

Miss Leone Homer was the pleasing young hostess at a children's masquerade party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Homer, Wednesday even-and Mrs. Eph Homer, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. E. H. Smart was the guest of honor at a social given by the members of the sixth grade of the B. Y. university. Games, songs and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour. Dainty refreshments were served.

Superintendent A. J. Southwick entertained the officers and teachers of the Fifth ward Sunday school at the assembly hall Friday evening. An excellent musucal programme was rendered and a most enjoyable social evening indulged in by about sixty guests. Refreshments were served.

Miss Alta Newcomb entertained a number of friends at a social Saturday evening. A merry evening was passed in games, songs and various amusements. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blumenthal entertained their friends at a social at their home Wednesday evening. Card were the feature of the evening, interwoven with a few musical selections. Delicious refreshments were served by the pleasing hostess.

The Women of Woodcraft entertained hostess.

The Women of Woodcraft entertained at a very enjoyable social at their lodge rooms Monday evening. An interesting musical and literary programme was en-

Joseph Dunn and his daughter, Miss Grace, attended the A. O. U. W. ball in American Fork Wednesday evening.

John R. Hindley of American Fork pent this week with members of his famely who are attending the university.

this city.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs.
John F, Carter gave a farewell party in their honor Monday evening at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are about to leave for Mammoth. The event was very enjoyable and will long be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Carter in their new home. Refreshments were served. nome. Refreshments were served.
Mrs. Samuel Jepperson entertained at a children's party at her home Tuesday afternoon. Games and various amusements were enjoyed by the little folks. A dinner was served.

Mrs. Jacob Gease, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the east, returned home Friday.

Charles Jenkins of Grand Junction, cial state of the control of the One of the prittiest home weddings Denver and the coast BINGHAM.

BINGHAM.

The order of Washington dance was a scene of brilliancy and gayety Thursday evening, when a throng of dance lovers assembled in honor and commemoration of the day. Canyon hall was brilliantly illuminated and artistically decorated in the national colors and flags. A most excellent oil painting of George Washington graced the most conspicuous space in the hall, while flags, tiny and large, floated from chandelier and celling. Booths gayly festooned and presided over by mrs. A E. Alexander and charmingly assisted by young maidens, served punch and was one of the enjoyable features of the evening's entertainment. Under the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the direction of C. L. Countryman a most appetizing banquet was served in the most pleasurable given in the hall.

Miss Dollickins Burns was amongicity visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Belma Almosal of the M. E. Church gave a powerty social" in the M. E. Church gave a powerty social" in the M. E. Church gave a formerly of Ogden but now living in Preston, Ida., visited old whise weak.

A. D. Bell returned to his home in this city the first of the week after an exheld absence in old Mexico.

William Athay and Mrs. Heber Smith Gest at the home of Mr. Morrell. There was an excellent musical programme rendered the young country of the week and the wind of the week after an exheld a shear of the week after an exhed absence in old Mexico.

William Athay and Mrs. Heber Smith Gest at the home of Mr. Morrell. There was an excellent musical programme rendered the young country of the week after an exhed and the programme rendered the young country of the week to visit gave wisitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill returned Wednesday from a brief stay at Salt E. E. Dudley entertains the Bingham Whist club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Adderley. Mrs. John Evans of Upper Bingham entertains the Be Lively club Wednesentertains the Be Lively club Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mitchell and Miss Johnson of Salt Lake were up Thursday to attend the Order of Washington dance.

Miss Rena Crawford charmingly entertained the Be Lively club of Upper Bingham at the home of Mrs. Beerman Wednesday evening. Whist was the game played. Pretty prizes were awarded to Miss Stella Kloppenstein and Mr. C. J. Stillman, Mrs. A. Jensen and Mr. J. H. Evens. A dainty lunch was served to about twenty-eight guests.

The members of the L. D. S. choir planned a most successful surprise party on their leader. Ray Kenner, Friday evening at his home. The time was spent pleasantly in cards, music and social chat. A delicious lunch was served to about twenty guests. decorated with the club colors. Punch and cake were served from the prettily arranged booths.

The Woman's Republican club entertained members and their partners at a social and dance in its club rooms Monday evening. A short musicale was first enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was passed in dancing. Each guest on entering was presented with a neat hand-painted Washington and Lincoln souvening.

chat. A deficious filter was served to about twenty guests.

Mrs. A. McPhee was a return visitor from the city Thursday.

The Misses Chegwidden. Julia Walker Dollickins Burns. Nellie McEvoy and J. C. Wood enjoyed a horseback ride to the Dalton & Lark Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. De Ford of Caliente, Nev., was visiting with friends during the week.

week.

Mrs. F. Kent Smith returned Tuesday from a brief trip to the city.

The children of the primary will give their entertainment March 15 at the ward meeting house.

Edwin Zwickey of Highland Boy expects to soon have his family cosily settled in their new home.

Arthur Cook, one of Bingham's old residenters, was up from Provo for a few days. a reception was given in their honor.

Mrs. Ephraim Homer was the hostess at a pleasant evening social at her home Tuesday evening. Cards, music and the partaking of delicious refreshments all assisted in making a most enjoyable even-

Miss Anna Geffen has returned from her pleasant visit with friends at the her pleasant visit with friends at the city.

Mrs. Ernest Bush is visiting her parents at Benjamin, Utah.

Miss Cora Hocking is visiting Miss Selma Finell at the Junction.

Miss Margaret McDonough spent Saturday with relatives at the capital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop of Salt Lake are guests of Mrs. Bishops mother, Mrs. Wakeham.

Mrs. N. E. Hilman had for her house guest her sister of Salt Lake.

Mrs. W. J. Craig of Salt Lake was up Thursday for the Order of Washington dance.

U. gave their annual ball at the gymnasium hall Thursday evening. An unusually large crowd was in attendance.

Mrs. Reed Smoot was a Salt Lake vis-Mrs. Fera Decker visited relatives and social event of the week in Americlarence Holman was over from Dalcan Fork was the marriage of Miss Helen Conder of the Second ward to Mr. Parley Smoot of Provo, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Conder, Bishop J. H. Storrs, offi-ciating. A reception was given the Clarence Holman was over from Dalton & Lark to attend the Order of Washington dance Thursday.

Mrs. Louis Cates returned Monday from a brief stay at the city.

Mrs. A. T. Williams had for her house guest her father Mr. Olsen of Salt Lake the first of the week.

Mrs. William Myers was at the metropolis the first of the week

Mr. and Mrs. David Teachnor are the guests of Mrs. C. H. Lashbrook at the capital. ciating. A reception was given the young couple immediately after the ceremony, to which a number of immediate friends and relatives were invited. They will be at home in Provo after March 20.

The A. O. U. W. picnic party in the Apollo hall Tuesday night was a decided success. Grand Overseer A. C. Spears of Salt Lake was present, also Commissioner James Dunn and Mrs. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peters of Provo, and Mr. and Mrs. Orson Mower of Spring-ville.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Starke, who went on the B. P. O. E. excursion to Los An-

Mr. and Mrs. Faul city during the week.
Miss Nora Heaston returned to the capital Sunday.
The Order of Washington will hold their first meeting in their new quarters hall Tuesday evening. Feb. 27. Canvon hall Tuesday even Billy Robins and rainly of Figuration Boy have moved into their new quarters up Markham.

H. M. Atkinson, superintendent of the New England, was at the city for a brief on the B. P. O. E. excursion to Los Angeles, arrived home Thursday. They report as having a fine trip.

L. E. Eggertson of Provo. county superintendent of schools. visited the public schools here Wednesday.

Miss Ella and Eliza Storrs returned home Friday after spending a week in Springville and Provo visiting relatives.

Mrs. Joseph S. Wilde entertained at dinner Sunday evening at her home in the First ward. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stout and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Storrs.

The largest attended dancing excursion ever run from Salt Lake City to American Fork was the one Wednesday night. About 300 coming down from there to trip the light fantastic at the Apollo.

Len Jackson returned home Wednesday from Mercur, where he had been visiting for a few days.

Miss Kate McAllister, a teacher in the Harrington school, visited her mother in Salt Lake Sunday. stay Tuesday.
Ruth Rebekah lodge enteretain at whist Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, most elaborate prizes will be awarded and a delicious lunch served. This society never fails to shine in its social functions.
Mrs, Charles Roper was at Zion Tuesday

lay.

Miss Long of Upper Bingham is visit-ing friends at Salt Lake.

Mrs. Tragascar was among city visitors

Mrs. Tragascar was among they visited at Tuesday.

The Fireman's dance to be given at Canyon hall Wednesday evening. Feb. 28, is looked forward to with great anticipation by Bingham's dance goers, and will no doubt mark the era of one of the most pleasant affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop of Salt Lake were guests of Mrs. Wakeham Thursday, mother of Mrs. Bishop.

Mrs. R. C. Smedley attended the banquet of the Daughters of the Revolution at the capital Thursday.

Mrs. William Sarle was up from Murray Thursday, guest of Mrs. Christensen of Upper Bingham. Harrington school, visited her mother in Salt Lake Sunday.

J. J. Jackson is able to be out again after a thre weeks illness with his old complaint, rheumatism.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Miller, a baby boy. Wednesday: all well.

Attorney Abel J. Evans of Lehi was a visitor in American Fork Friday.

Mrs. Rose Miller is visiting her parents in Manti this week.

Ex-Mayor James H. Clarke was a Salt Lake visitor one day this week.

Rudolph Konold of Salt Lake City spent the week in American Fork in the interest of the Phoenix Life Insurance company.

The local Odd Fellows had a very nice The local Odd Fellows had a very fice social function on Monday evening in honor of Grand Master C. A. Walker, Grand Representative W. O. Carbis and Grand Secretary Peter Simpkin, who came up from Salt Lake to visit the Logan lodge. They were received at the Odd Fellows' hall, where a fine musical programme was readered and an excelgramme was rendered and an excel on the pioneers of 1847 now left in American Fork by making them honorary members of their club at their meeting Thursday night.

The citizens of Alpine observed Washington's birthday by entertaining their old folks. A delightful programme was rendered and a delicious banquet was served. Alpine as entertainers are surely the best ever. programme was rendered and an excellent luncheon served.

Miss Lavina Olsen gave a china shower on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Delia Porter. The evening was spent in social pleasures. Supper was served early in the evening and later the presentation of many gifts to Miss Porter occurred.

Miss Kate Anderson, a well known young woman of this city, was united in marriage on Thursday to Charles H. Wakley of Salt Lake City. The evening prior to her marriage the young woman was tendered a reception by her coworkers in the Second ward Y. L. M. I. A. A great many young people particity. served. Alpine as entertainers are surely the best ever.

James Chipman of Salt Lake City spent Washington's birthday in American Fork visiting with his sons and daughters.

Bert Pike has accepted a position as drug clerk in Thornton's drug store. He will commence on March 1.

Felix Bachman of Provo was in American Fork Tuesday.

M. E. Bezzant spent Washington's birthday in Provo renewing old acquaintances. A. A great many young people partici-pated in the affair and a thoroughly pleasant evening was spent by all pres-

Mrs. week with her aunt, and week with her aunt, birthday in observance of Washington's Thursday in observance of Washington's birthday.

From church headquarters for Alpine stake spending a month or more with relatives are considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home this week after spending a month or more with relatives have considered to his home. birthday.

A call from church headquarters for fifteen missionaries from Alpine stake has been made. This means that American Fork will have to furnish about here.

Ora Card of Baker City. Ore., visited in this city with his father this week.
Dr. Ezra Rich of Ogden visited in Logan the first of the week.
James Mack of Ogden was in Logan Thursday on a visit to old friends and business associates.
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Goodwin visited relatives in Trenton the first of the week.
A party of Loganites, consisting of Mr. twelve of them.

Friends of Miss Annie Preston, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Preston of the Second ward, will be pleased to learn that she is able to get out with the aid of crutches, after a three months' confinement to the house with dislocation week.

A party of Loganites, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. George Mickelson. Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. A. McKenney, went to Pocatello, Sunday, to be present at the reception in honor of the fifteenth weding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson.
L. C. Farr went to Teton, Ida., this

L. C. Farr went to Teton, Ida., this week to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. George W. Lufkin returned Sunday night from Hood River, Ore., where she visited for a time with her daughter. Mrs. Davenport.

J. R. Clements of Bellingham, Wash., was in Logan Tuesday.

Judge C. C. Goodwin, a resident of this city for over thirty years, is disposing of his interests here and will shortly move to Los Angeles.

George Gordon of Salt Lake City visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon, this week.

The local Odd Fellows gave a ball in their lodge room on Friday.

Ex-City and County Attorney P. E. Keeier is disposing of his property here

Keeler is disposing of his property here

The Surprise club met on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blood and enjoyed another of their unique and interesting parties. Luncheon was served and an evening of games was enjoyed. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank L. Layton, Fred L. Bennett, O. A. Williams, John G. Linford, George B. Sheffield George C Layton.

Sheffield, George C. Layton. Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, who has been jr., on the manners and customs of dren South Sea islanders. The rooms were decorated entirely with rugs, mats,

Mr. and Mrs. John Flint of Kaysville celebrated the thirty-fourth anniversary of their wedding day on Monday. All members of their family spent the day at the old homestead in E. Anderson of Salina. spent the day at the old homestead in in appropriate and enjoyable manner. Mrs. O. A. Williams and Mrs. F. L. Bennett were visitors to Salt Lake this with relatives here for a month, re-A Washington's birthday ball was given in the Music hall Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Kaysville amusement committee Miss Irma Kimball of Tha

Nev. Today All coalty of the M. E. Goldfield, Ariz., is visiting in Kaysville with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wil-

this week with friends.

The officers of the Second ward Sunday school gave a delightful social on Wedneseday evening at the home of H. E. Hatch. Games and an excellent musical programme furnished abundant entainment, and a fine luncheon was served.

KAYSVILLE.

The Surprise club met on WednesThe Surprise club met on WednesT relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spafford arrived from Provo Monday on a visit to rela-

Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, who has been spending the winter with her daughter. Mrs. Oliver Wilcox in Garland, returned to her home in Farmington on Wednesday.

The members of Los Platicadoras club took a trip to Centerville last Saturday and spent an afternoon with Mrs. Nemmie Taylor Smith, who while residing here was a member of the club. A very pleasant day was spent.

Last evening at the home of Heber J. Sheffield a large company gathered and listened with much interest to an instructive address by H. J. Sheffield, jr., on the manners and customs of decorated entirely with rugs. mats, and an almost endless variety of curios from the Tahitian islands.

Wilkie Blood is down from Logan spending a few days with relatives.

May be the clerk and a reception was held in the evening. County Clerk Parley Magleby issued licenses to three couples Wednesday and the clerk and a reception was held in the evening.

CALIFORNIA RATES-TODAY.

Colonist rate of $25.00 to San Francisco. Los Angeles and intermediate Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Barnes of Idaho Falls, who have been visiting West 2nd South. Phones 1986.

Banks. -116 Main St.

The greatest merchant in the world demonstrated the practicability of combining wholesale and retail under one management.

It increases the output and affords the best advantages in buying.

Imitating successful people fosters suc-

They are modern, studied and tried meth-Patronage is won by substantial profit-

Dealers patronizing us pay eastern jobbers' prices and save extravagant freight bills.

Our freight bills are paid out of what is saved from travelers' expenses, We save the consumer one-third to a half the purchase price by eliminating the jobbers'

Models are imported and copied at half the originals' cost.

Home industry is encouraged; what is paid out for labor remains and circulates at home.

Protecting and encouraging home industries is what made America's greatness.

It will make Utah great.

We have hats worth up to $40.00 each.

There are many people who will not pay even $20.00 for a hat. ]

That's why we have so many at $3 to $5

We endeavor to supply the $40.00 kind at $15.00 to $20.00 each.

We are now the largest exclusive distributors of millinery supplies between Chicago and San Francisco.

O. D. BANKS & CO., 116 South Main St.